

A Different Lens

Exploring African Canadian Culture and Society in the Age of Sam Slick

Wednesday September 30th, 7 p.m.

Photo credit: Timothy Hunt

Karolyn Smardz Frost

- Archaeologist, historian and award winning author
- Harrison McCain Visiting Professor, Acadia University
- Senior Research Fellow, African Canadian History, Harriet Tubman Institute, York University
- Winner of the 2007 Governor General's Literary Award for her volume, I've Got a Home in Glory Land: A Lost Tale of the Underground Railroad

Please call to reserve your seat
Haliburton House Museum

414 Clifton Avenue, Windsor

902-798-2915